Infinite Campus Announces New Channel Partnership in Texas

September 2, 2009 – Blaine, Minn., – Infinite Campus, Inc. of Blaine, Minn. is pleased to announce a new channel partnership with XID, Ltd. based in Euless, Texas. Infinite Campus, a comprehensive student information system, helps K-12 educators manage data for students in 43 states.

XID is a technology consulting and software development firm offering software services, systems integration, and support solutions to schools. XID will represent Infinite Campus as a channel partner in Texas.

“We are pleased to announce this channel partnership with XID,” says Charlie Kratsch, CEO and founder of Infinite Campus. “Their 20 plus years of technology expertise developing and supporting educational software systems along with their value added services will give our customers the satisfaction they expect from their Infinite Campus investment.”

XID, with hands on experience in the K-12 market, offers proven solutions and services to meet the needs of instructors and administrators.

“The phenomenal growth of Infinite Campus in the marketplace and its reputation for excellence in quality educational applications made it the perfect choice for a strategic alliance,” said Dale Marsh, managing partner at XID. “This relationship will give us the opportunity to offer districts access to a full array of integrated solutions leading to improved quality of education in Texas.”

XID provides software solutions for managing professional development, textbooks, response to intervention, document management, transportation, maintenance, and help desk operations which will enhance the investment of Infinite Campus customers in Texas. XID is currently working closely with the education service agency partner of Infinite Campus, Region 10 Education Service Center located in Dallas, to immediately provide services and support.

The partnership was effective September 1, 2009.
