A District's Perspective: What We've Done to Record Transgender and Non-Binary Identities and Student Pronouns

Denver Public Schools continues to support our diverse student body. Supporting the whole child includes making sure all of our students feel safe and respected at school, regardless of their gender identity. We have enhanced Infinite Campus by adding three non-binary genders, created a special process to support state reporting, and flags for student pronouns.

Classworks: Create High-Quality Lessons in Your Learning Management System

What if your Learning Management System (LMS) was already packed with standards-based instruction teachers could easily assign? And, even better, what if teachers and students never had to leave the comfort of their LMS to assign instruction, complete the work, and view grades.

This year more than ever before teachers are using Learning Management Systems to organize their instruction for students. But, how do you find high-quality, standards-based lessons to add? Join our session to learn how to easily add high-quality resources to your lessons and make them easily available to students using your LMS. Learn how to search by standard, assign, and grade. And, see the student's experience -- they can easily find and complete instruction in the LMS as well!
